1. Dear, Mr. Lei Jun (雷軍). I wish you and your company's permanent development.
2. I would like to sell my son's certificate of utility model patent right to your Xiaomi Inc. US.'s Google Inc. is creating a prototype of Google glass. After searching Google HMD, I saw some U-tube videos. Among them, I saw one video that Google glass is operating with Android OS. smart phone by wireless connection works. At that time, I knew that the operating system method is almost same as my son's idea. The site address is => <http://youtu.be/20quHGtdYUQ> (Title : Google Glass Explorer Edition 2.0 Unboxing and First Impressions). The video up loaded date was June 2'nd, 2013, but my son's idea filed as an Utility Model Patent in Korean Intellectual Property Office on July 17'th, 2012, and registered on June 12'th, 2014. I know that it is not possible to develop similar contents products without patent holder's permission. By using Google glass and Android OS. smart phone, my son's idea has been implemented in that video. For this reason, I would like to sell my son's patent right to your company or collaborate with your company to make, develop and commercialization for my son's idea. I wish my son's idea can be implemented by using Xiaomi glass, MIUI and Xiaomi's smart phone. I wish you and your company's positive check for my Proposal.
3. My son, Kim, Seung-jin is high school senior student in Korea. He invented Glasses type remote controller idea in Korea. Briefly explain my son's idea, Glasses device and smart phone are operating by wireless connection with smart phone application. And each screen, voice recognition system and shooting video can be synchronized by two way transmission. Glasses type remote controller idea is registered as certificate of utility model patent, number 20-0473246 in Korean Intellectual Property Office. I am attaching copies of each certificate of utility model patent and registered specification.
4. I am currently trying to promote this idea to make, develop and commercialization in Korea. However, technical and economic reasons, I need collaboration with specialized company. I sent collaborative proposals to the Korean Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd.'s CEO. Mr. Kwon, Oh-hyun. and US.'s Google Inc.'s CEO. Mr. Lawrence E. Page. I would like to sell my son's certificate of utility model patent right to your Xiaomi Inc. And I wish you and your company's positive reply within August 31'st, 2014. Because I also sent Collaborative Proposal to Korean Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd. And the result will be replied within that day.

Sincerely yours,

August 12'th, 2014.
